THE UPPERHOUSE

Welcome to

THE UPPERHOUSE

Where business meets a little bit of buzz.

If you're going to spend a day talking strategy, solving problems, or celebrating wins, you may as well do it somewhere that serves great food and even better vibes.

Welcome to The Upperhouse at The Royal Hotel Queanbeyan, your go-to venue for meetings, conferences, planning days, training sessions, EOFY parties, and everything in between.

We're not your typical event space (read: beige carpet and no windows). Instead, we offer three versatile private spaces upstairs, onsite catering by famed local Executive Chef - Wayne Alger, flexible layouts, and a team that just gets it.

Need healthy options for your team wellness day? Done. Want to wrap up your offsite with cocktails and canapés? We'll have them ready.

Whether you're hosting a boardroom brainstorm, launching a new product, or just bringing the team together - we'll make sure your event runs smoothly, feels effortless, and leaves the right impression.

Take a scroll through our packages and menus - and if something doesn't quite fit, we'll tailor it until it does. We look forward to hosting you.

Warmly,

Bianca Paquay
